Taking care of consumers ... and working overtime

Promoting fairness for consumers and business in a complex marketplace

The Consumers Council of Canada is celebrating the passion and commitment of notable individuals committed to representation of consumer rights in the marketplace with this special evening.

This year's inaugural event is organized in memory of Whipple Steinkrauss, former Council board member and senior public servant, for her accomplishments and dedication to consumer protection and education.

Keynote Speaker: Douglas Melville
CEO and Ombudsman
Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments

With special greetings and remarks by:

The Honourable Margaret Best
Ontario Minister of Consumer Services

Please join us in this much anticipated networking event, bringing consumer advocates and industry leaders together to share in a commitment to create an efficient, equitable, safe and effective marketplace.
