The Consumers Council of Canada is celebrating the passion and commitment of notable individuals committed to representation of consumer rights in the marketplace with this special evening.

This year’s inaugural event is organized in memory of Whipple Steinkrauss, former Council board member and senior public servant, for her accomplishments and dedication to consumer protection and education.

Special greetings and remarks by: The Honourable Margaret Best, Ontario Minister of Consumer Services. Keynote Speaker: Douglas Melville, CEO and Ombudsman, Ombudsman for Banking Services and Investments. Please join us for this networking event, bringing consumer advocates and industry leaders together to share in a commitment to create an efficient, equitable, safe and effective marketplace.
