

FAIR

Canadian Foundation for
Advancement of Investor Rights

LAWYER AND POLICY ANALYST

The Canadian Foundation for the Advancement of Investor Rights (FAIR Canada) is a non-profit organization that acts as a national voice for consumers and retail investors in securities regulation. For more information about FAIR Canada, please visit our website at www.faircanada.ca.

We currently have an opening in Toronto to fill a multi-faceted role, acting as our Legal Counsel and Corporate Secretary and as Policy Analyst. The successful candidate will be an integral part of a small team working with our board of directors in a collegial and stimulating environment.

Applicants should have a good understanding of securities regulation with 1 to 4 years of experience in this field. The position also requires exceptional research and analytical skills, strong organizational abilities, and excellent oral and written presentation skills.

Interested qualified candidates should email their resumes along with a covering letter and reference contacts to FAIR Canada's Executive Assistant/Administrator Alison MacPhee at Alison.MacPhee@faircanada.ca by August 2, 2019.

We thank all applicants for their expression of interest; however, only those candidates selected for an interview will be contacted.